CODE OF ETHICS

All members are to abide by the following rules and regulations of the CODE OF ETHICS as set forth by the CHICAGO BULLDOG CLUB.

1. All members must possess proper and legal AKC papers for each individual bulldog that the member shows or uses for breeding purposes.
2. All members must keep the bulldog a pure breed.
3. All members who raise puppies are strongly discouraged from selling their puppies to pet stores or other retail or wholesale outlets.
4. All members are encouraged to eliminate misuse of the Bulldog Breed. This includes but is not limited to the following: selling bulldogs to anyone remotely suspected of using dogs for illegal or immoral purposes (i.e. drug affiliated, laboratory use, dog fighting, etc.)
5. All members, in order to maintain the health and safety of the bulldog bitch, will refrain from breeding bitches less than 12 months of age.
6. All members who sell bulldogs shall be willing to take their dog back at no cost to them, should a purchaser of said dog be unwilling or unable to keep the dog. This is to insure that the bulldog will not reside where it is unwanted or mistreated or be sent to a pound or shelter.
7. All members attending dog shows and functions will observe the punctuality, sportsmanlike manner and dress according to a sporting event of this nature.
8. All members are expected to assist other bulldog owners with any information or knowledge or experience they may possess regarding health, safety and welfare of the bulldog breed.
9. All members should be willing to support the Chicago Bulldog Club in its various endeavors to further and promote the bulldog breed. (This includes participation in the Annual Specialty events on various committees and donations toward trophies and ways and means.)
